Go beyond CMYK.

Imagine the possibilities.

The RICOH Pro C7200X Series Graphic Arts Edition

Designed for the commercial print and graphic arts market, these systems can set your business apart with oversized media options up to 13" x 49.6", outstanding image quality, and support for specialty stocks and substrates up to 360 gsm. With a 5th color station for clear, white, neon yellow, neon pink and invisible red toner you can deliver an impressive range of high-end capabilities that traditional 4-color digital systems simply cannot match.
